REYES-TELLEZ, Martin was removed from the United States on January 11, 2022. These checks and a review of the administrative file show REYES-TELLEZ, Martin has not applied for re-admission to the United States.
4. I conducted a computerized criminal history record search on REYES-TELLEZ, Martin in the National Crime Information Center and found that REYES-TELLEZ, Martin was criminally prosecuted in the 45th Circuit Court, Centreville, Michigan for felony Police Officer – Resisting / Assaulting / Obstructing. REYES-TELLEZ, Martin was positively identified based on comparison with known recent photos from his immigration file. Officers lost sight of REYES-TELLEZ, Martin as his father backed a grey Dodge Caravan out of the driveway. Officers did not attempt to stop the vehicle as the only visual occupant was REYES, Martin. Officers approached the house and knocked on the door attempting to contact REYES-TELLEZ, Martin with negative result. Approximately 15 minutes later REYES, Martin returned home and was encountered by officers at the side door of his residence. REYES, Martin admitted the photo in the approved Field Operations Work Folder (FOW) was his son, REYES-TELLEZ, Martin, but claimed he did not know where he was.
